

SUPER Benchmarking Week

CHILD AND YOUTH STREAM AGENDA

Thursday 24 March 2022

9:30am to 2pm

Via Zoom

Click here to register

9:30am	Karakia and master of ceremonies welcome
9:45am	Keynote address: Anna Taylor, Paralympian and Youth Support Worker Get insights into how using data, information and benchmarking have contributed to Anna's success as a high performance athlete and how her learnings could help mental health services on their continuous improvement journeys.
10:20am	Keynote address: Youth Consumer Advisors, Whāraurau Explore priorities for the Aotearoa New Zealand mental health and addiction sector from a rangatahi perspective.
11:00am	Keynote address: Judge Frances Eivers, Children's Commissioner Hear how the Children's Commission is working to achieve their vision for all mokopuna to live their best lives.
11:35am	Lunch break
12:30pm	Sector exemplar: Jemma Stephens, Clinical Team Leader, Auckland DHB Learn how Auckland DHB are using HoNOSCA total score on admission to tailor care for rangatahi who receive care from forensic services.
12:50pm	Indicator development: Working in partnership to create a whānau engagement indicator Whānau Advisors will lead the commencement of an initial sector wide consultation session to shape the KPI Programme's next indicator – whānau engagement.
1:40pm	Master of ceremonies closing reflections and Super Benchmarking Week insights
1:55pm	Poroporoaki