

Free tools and support for safer online experiences

Practical resources to respond, understand and build skills for a safer online world.

Coming May 14th

Dad...what do I do if I've accidentally shared something private online?

Digital Guardian Guide

Support for parents and caregivers

Practical advice, conversation tools, and platform guidance in one place. Designed to support everything from first devices to navigating online harm and keeping regular kōrero going at home.

SCAN ME

Responding to Online Harm

Free, online, interactive training (under 45 minutes)

Designed for people working or volunteering with young people to help you respond with confidence, support safely, and connect to the right help.

Prize draws available at launch

Custom webinars for teams (10+)

SIGN UP

Listen first.

Take them seriously.

Stay calm.

Make a plan together.

Launches June 5

Approaches to Online Community Moderation

IN AOTEAROA NEW ZEALAND

Guidance for maintaining safer online communities

Practical approaches, policies and tips for moderators and community leaders.

SCAN ME

BODY IMAGE & SOCIAL MEDIA

Body Image Toolkit

Information and tools for positive body image

Explore how social media influences self perception and find practical tips to support balance and wellbeing.

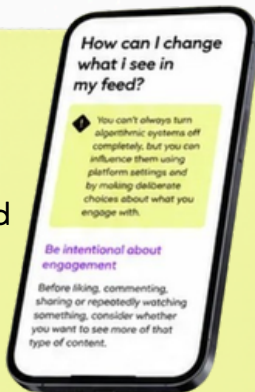

SCAN ME

Algorithm and Feeds

Understanding how content shows up online

Learn how algorithms work and what you can do to influence your feed.

- ✔ Manage your settings
- ✔ Use feed & recommendation controls
- ✔ Reset your feed when you need

SCAN ME

Headspace Invaders

Interactive resource for young people 12-16

Explore online content, question what you see, and build practical skills to recognise and resist manipulation online.

For use in classrooms or small groups

Gamified, interactive & practical

SCAN ME